Dear Sir:

I am writing to tell you I have ordered the placards for the Eagles and Cubans game in Atlantic City May 14th. It was not necessary to have them shipped to you so soon, except for the fact that I am also shipping you 10 cards for our Opening Day game in Newark Sunday, May 11th. I would appreciate it very much if you will have them distributed around Atlantic City for me, there may be a few people who would like to make the trip up. We are planning a very big day, having the entire 372nd Infantry from Fort Dix, N. J. up for the game. The American Legion is acting as honor guard and I am sure your Post has been invited to take part. Atty. J. Mercer Burrell sent out the letter to all the Legion Groups.

I am enclosing an addressed postal card. Will appreciate having you drop it in the mail to me when the placards arrive. Let me know if you will be able to take care of distributing those for the Opening Day.

Very truly yours,
